

Preach the Good News!

Preaching God's Word is foundational to the growth of the church and the spread of the gospel.

In these one-day conferences David Cook, Abraham Kuruvilla and Malcolm Gill will look at a number of key elements in preparing and delivering Biblical sermons and talks with a particular focus on preaching Mark's gospel.

Topics covered will include:-

- Preaching through Mark's gospel.
- Clarity in preaching.
- Tips for using illustrations.
- Narrative preaching – in particular to Gen Y.

Keynote Speakers

David Cook is principal of Sydney Missionary & Bible College (SMBC) and the Director of the SMBC School of Preaching. He has pastored churches in both rural and urban settings.

David speaks regularly at conferences and training events throughout Australia and overseas. David has written a number of books and Bible studies. He is married to Maxine and they have four adult children.

Abraham Kuruvilla is a professor of preaching at Dallas Theological Seminary in the United States. He has also served as an interim pastor of several churches.

Abraham has completed three doctorates and has published a book on hermeneutics. He is currently writing a book on preaching Mark's gospel. Abraham is passionate about preaching and teaching others to be better preachers.

Malcolm Gill lecturers in Preaching and New Testament at SMBC. He is on the staff of the SMBC School of Preaching. Prior to joining SMBC Malcolm pastored the evening congregation at St Barnabas Anglican church Broadway (in Sydney).

Malcolm has a PhD in New Testament studies from Dallas Theological Seminary. Malcolm is married to Tamara and they have three children.
