You may feel that you are ready to accept God's offer of forgiveness and become a Christian. Praying the prayer of commitment below is a good way to do this, if you are ready. Of course, you don't have to use this prayer and simply praying the prayer won't make you a Christian unless it expresses the true desire of your heart.

Dear God, I admit that I have rejected you and have lived life my own way not your way. Please forgive me for this. Please help me to turn from my rejection of you and live with you as the ruler of my life instead of myself.

I accept that Jesus has taken the punishment that I deserve by dying on the cross and rising again. Please help me to act on this fact by putting my trust in Jesus and his death and resurrection as being the only way I can be forgiven by you.

Thank you for your forgiveness, the gift of your Holy Spirit and the assurance of an eternity with you. Amen.

If you have prayed this prayer and it expresses the true desire of your heart, then you can be assured that God has forgiven you. Prayer, Bible reading, meeting with other Christians, and telling others about God's offer of forgiveness are some of the important things that you now need to be doing regularly if you are to grow as a Christian.
